Awarded Silver Medal by the Jurors at the Manchester Smoke Abatement Exhibition, 1882.

From DR. WILLIAM WALLACE, F.R.S.E., F.I.C., F.C.S., Gas Examiner for the City of Glasgow.

GAS TESTING OFFICE, WALLS STREET.

GLASGOW, 17th April, 1880.

I have subjected one of the Gas Governors, manufactured by Messrs. STOTT & Co., Oldham, to a series of tests, and am highly satisfied with its performance. It possesses several distinct advantages over the Mercurial Governor formerly in use, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as an accurate and convenient regulator of Gas Pressure.

P.S.—I have the Regulator attached now to one of Leoni's Gas Cooking Stoves, and it answers the purpose admirably, enabling the cook to turn on the stopcocks of the Ovens, &c., full without risk of wasting gas or giving too great a heat.

SAVINGS EFFECTED.

The Oak Spinning Co. Limited, Oldham .. .. Cost of Governors, £30.	107,000 feet in 3 months.
The United Spinning Co. Limited, Oldham	64,000	" "
Messrs. Butterworth & Murgatroyd, Glebe Mills, Hollinwood, Oldham .. This Firm has 18 Governors in use.	250,000	" "
The Scarisbrick Hotel, Southport .. .. Saving in 1880, £24. Cost of Governor, £5 17 6.	39,600	" "

The Greenock Public House Co. Limited, report a saving of over 30 per cent.

BAILLIE'S INSTITUTION

Was founded by Mr. George Baillie, writer in Glasgow, who divested himself in his lifetime of his whole fortune (£18,000), which with its accumulations during twenty-one years from 11th November, 1863, he appointed to be applied to the erection and endowment of an Educational Institution in Glasgow, to be called "Baillie's Institution," having for its objects, (1st) to aid the self culture of the operative classes by means of free public libraries; and (2nd) the instruction of their children in unsectarian schools. The Dean, Council, and Clerk of the Faculty of Procurators in Glasgow are perpetual preceptors, patrons, and directors of the institution, which was incorporated by royal charter, dated March 18, 1867. Thomas Stout, 178 St. Vincent street, chamberlain.

Librarian—F. T. Barrett
Sub-Librarian—John Ingram

Founded on a Bequest of the late Stephen Mitchell, Esq. Mr. Mitchell died in April, 1874, and the bequest was accepted by the Town Council in July of the same year.

The Library was opened November 1, 1877, and is open daily from 9-30 a.m. till 10 p.m. uninterruptedly. It contains 45,000 volumes. The books are not permitted to be taken away, but may be read in the library, which has been conveniently furnished for this purpose. There is a magazine room, where may be seen more than 180 of the principal weekly, monthly, and quarterly serials, including a number of American, German, and French periodicals. The admission is free, and no introduction or guarantee is required

The number of readers is large, frequently exceeding the accommodation provided. In 1880 the average number of volumes issued daily was 1,269; in 1881, 1,315, not including the large use made of the periodicals in the magazine room. The total issue during 1881 was 408,713; and from commencement to 31st May, 1882 was 1,548,448.

The Library is administered by a Committee of the Town Council.

GLASGOW HOME FOR DESERTED MOTHERS,
308 Renfrew Street.

Established in 1873, and supported by Voluntary Contributions.

The aim and object of this Home is to supply a desideratum, the want of which has been long experienced in this city and the West of Scotland, to afford temporary shelter and maintenance to destitute and houseless mothers, with their helpless infants. Those only who have for the first time deviated from the paths of virtue, or who have been led astray, are eligible for admission. While resident in the Home a vigilant supervision is exercised over them. Much attention is paid to their moral and religious welfare, and every effort made to procure suitable situations for them. The infants are placed under the care of proper and trustworthy nurses, all of whom are under the oversight and supervision of the matron. The Home is managed by a committee of ladies, assisted by a board of gentlemen, and is under the general superintendence of a matron

MACFARLANE'S SCHOOL,
Surrey Street, Gorbals

Founded by the late Mrs. Waddell, of Stonefield, for the purpose of founding and maintaining a school in the Barony of Little Govan or Gorbals, for teaching a competent number of girls reading, writing, sewing, and the principles of religion. The patronage and management of said school were vested in the testator's trustees, and after their resignation or decease, in the Minister and three Elders of the parish of Gorbals, with the Magistrates of Gorbals. Since the extension of the municipality the three senior Bailies of Glasgow have been appointed in room of the Magistrates of Gorbals, with the Minister and three Elders of the parish. Number of girls taught is about 60. Applicants for admission must be 8 and under 9, but no children whose parents or guardians receive parochial relief can be admitted. Those named Macfarlane have a preference.

Canadian Distributing Home, Marchmont, Belleville, Ont., Canada.

During the past nine years over 2,000 children and young people have been permanently helped, 600 of whom are in Canadian homes and doing well, and the remainder in various places in this country to hundreds of others temporary help has been given. The gospel has been preached to tens of thousands of the working classes and non-church goers. Visitation of the low lodging-houses and tract distribution is carried on by our voluntary workers. No one is called on for subscriptions. The work is carried on in dependence upon God, and during the last nine years He has sent in, in answer to prayer, upwards of £80,000. A good part of this has been expended on the buildings at the City Home and Bridge of Weir.

The following gentlemen are trustees for the estate and buildings:—Messrs. Alexander Allan, T. Corbett, T. Coats, J. H. N. Graham, R. H. Hunter, J. H. Watt, J. C. White, and William Quarrier. There is no committee. A balance sheet properly audited is issued yearly. Donations are acknowledged to friends sending their addresses, and also every second Monday in N. B. Daily Mail. There are at present about 320 children and young people in the Homes. The weekly expense is about £100. Orphan children from any part of the country taken in. Donations and applications to be sent to William Quarrier, 318 St. Vincent st, Glasgow, by whom further information will be given.

Officer—James Robertson

The society was instituted in the year 1806, and the sphere of its operations includes the parliamentary boundary of the city of Glasgow situated on the south side of the River Clyde. The object of the society is to afford pecuniary or other relief to the natives and old inhabitants of the Barony of Gorbals, who are of respectable character, have been in better circumstances, but reduced to a decayed and indigent state; and who, not being otherwise sufficiently provided for, stand in need of the society's aid; but no one receives assistance from its funds who is in receipt of parochial relief. Advanced age, urgent necessity, and respectability of character are indispensable. Length of residence, next of nativity preferred, but applicants must have one or other of these qualifications. Non-residence at the time of making application will not exclude from the benefits of the society. No one is allowed to participate in the benefits of the society who is under fifty years of age, unless labouring under permanent bodily infirmity. The Treasurer supplies forms of application for aid.

LIST OF DIRECTORIES

PUBLISHED BY

ISAAC SLATER.

1882. SCOTLAND (in One Volume) ... 45/-

"SLATER'S Directory of Scotland needs no word of commendation. Its usefulness and value have been long known and acknowledged by business men. . . . . A handy guide to those engaged in trade and commerce throughout Scotland."—Dundee Advertiser.

1882. LANCASHIRE ... 50/-

" . . . . . A monumental undertaking like this, requiring an immense organization to bring it to perfection, is, of course, an indespensable and invaluable adjunct to the business of the city and of the county. Its methodical arrangement is excellent, and its accuracy, so far as we have been able to test it, is unimpeachable."—Manchester City News.

" . . . . . The reliance which, all throughout this district, is placed in Slater's Directory forms the best testimony which could be offered to the accuracy with which the complicated task of compiling it is performed. As a result of such tests as we have been able to apply, it appears certain that the accuracy of the new edition is even greater than that observable in the previous ones."—Manchester Courier.

1881. IRELAND ... 40/-

" . . . . . The largest and most comprehensive that has been undertaken since the commencement of the enterprise in 1795. To commercial men having business relations with provincial towns in Ireland as well as the cities it will be specially valuable."—Irish Times.

" . . . . . As a commercial book of reference the book is certainly a valuable one, the closeness of its information to the date of its issue being remarkable. There is a very fine map of Ireland, it should be added, attached to the work."—Freeman's Journal.

1886. NORTH & SOUTH WALES, with SHROPSHIRE and the Cities of BRISTOL and CHESTER 40/-

" . . . . . After subjecting the work to some severe tests, we are glad to bear testimony to the accuracy and completeness of the compilation. . . . . A map of Wales and various county maps contribute to make up a bulky and most valuable work, which is, unquestionably, by far the best directory of Wales yet issued."—South Wales Daily News.

1879. NORTHERN COUNTIES:

DURHAM, NORTHUMBERLAND, CUMBERLAND, WESTMORELAND, and the CLEVELAND DISTRICT 40/-

"A valuable addition to commercial literature. . . . . We understand that out of the large number of copies which have been issued not a single complaint as to inaccuracy has been received."—Newcastle Daily Chronicle.
